BEN VAN DEN DUNGEN

Art Blakey once said that jazz has to be 'danceable and have the blues'. This could be in many ways Ben van den Dungen's general musical motto. He has been in the jazz scene for many years. So far, he has made 80 albums and played around 5000 concerts in 70 countries.

PRESS

"Without much notice, Ben van den Dungen recently joined the historical big names of jazz. With his musical approach, that can be deduced from Sonny Rollins and John Coltrane, one can easily compare him to heroes like Stanley Turrentine and Joe Henderson." – Dagblad van het Noorden
